2020-21	NIL	NIL	NIL	NIL

In 2020-21, COVID 19 made most of the Conferences, Seminars, Workshops, Refresher and Orientation programs online. Teachers attended all these activities online. They did not have to go directly. The teachers decided to be frugal by closing the request for financial support from the college and took a positive decision to provide financial assistance by stopping receiving grants for attending such activities and paying fees for the last three to four years. Therefore, even though the financial support seems to be negligible, teachers are encouraged at the principal and administrative level to attend such various activities; they are given on-duty. Many teachers are honored by the college at the time when they get higher degrees and are rewarded for their good work. They are also encouraged to qualify for higher degrees and are rewarded for their accomplishments. Below are some highlights of the event.
