A one-day webinar on “New Educational Policy:...” was organized on 23rd August, 2020, on the occasion of University Foundation Day. It was inaugurated in the presence of Prof. Dr. Sachin Bhandare, Department of English, Rajarshi Shahu College, Latur. Secretary of Yogeshwari Shikshan Sanstha Shri Ganpat Vyas was present as the President of the program. This webinar was held in two sessions, Prof. Dr. Sachin Bhandare and Education Officer Shri R. B. Lagad were the resource persons. The introductory speech was given by I/c Principal Ramesh Sonwalkar and Moderated by Prof. Dr. Dhanaji Arya. Prof. Dr. Sampada Kulkarni expressed vote of thanks.

First Technical Session 11.00 to 12.30 –

In the first session, Prof. Dr. Sachin Bhandare outlined the features of the new education policy and the changes to be made in the existing education system. The integrated approach to the new education policy is to create co-ordination across all disciplines and enable students to learn according to their interests and abilities. The policy focuses on a wide range of key issues such as handicrafts, business orientation, employability and research, and aims to build the capable and skilled manpower required to build a new India. Such type of detailed guidance was given by Prof. Dr. Sachin Bhandare about the policy.

Prof. Dr. Sachin Bhandare, Rajarshi Shahu Mahavidyalaya Latur is addressing in the First Session.

Second Technical Session 12.30 to 2.00

In the second session, Shri R. B. Lagad, a former education officer and retired deputy director, reviewed the new education policy and hoped that the manpower required for agriculture, agri-supplementary industries and processing industries should be created through education. He also explained the four visionary pillars of new education policy which was reflected in the past policies also, i.e. Learning to be Learn, Learning to do, Learnig with each other and Learning to make life succesful. By expressing such sentiments, he detailed the view that teacher and our education system should work for the betterment of human life.

Valedictory Funicton-

The webinar was concluded in the presence of Shri Bhimashankar Shete, Director Yogeshwari Education Societyh, Principal Ramesh Sonwalkar was the chair person of this functon. Feedbacks were taken in this concluding session from participants and teachers.

One Day Webinar on “Namanter Movement of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University and its Relevance in this New Era.”

Jointly organized by Department of History, Social Science Club and IQAC

Innaugural Function- 10.00 to 11.00am

The inauguration ceremony was held in the presence of the Chief Guest and Resource Person Prof. Dr. Merkale S. V. The Principal in charge, Dr. B. P. Ruddewad, presided over the function. Dr. P. R. Tharkar, Head of Public Administration Department of the College was also present on the occasion. The convener of the event, Prof. M.P. Deshpande, reviewed the renaming movement and outlined the purpose of the webinar. The dignitaries reacted briefly in the innauguration. Dr. Ruddewad B.P. concluded the session by giving his inspirated speech. The program was moderated by Dr. Sampada Kulkarni and Dr. Dhanaji Arya expressed vote of thanks.

First Technical Session 11.00 to 12.30 –

In the first session, Prof. Dr. SV Merkale elaborated on the history of the name change struggle and explained the educational work of Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar and his contribution to the education of Marathwada. Therefore, he clarified how appropriate it was to give the name of Dr. Ambedkar to this university. At the same time, he opined that not only the name but also the higher education intended for Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar should be imparted. In that connection, he clarified the important responsibility of us professors and all the elements in the field of education.

Second Technical Session 12.30 to 2.00

In the second session, Dr. P.R. Tharkar, Head, Department of Public Administration, Mahavidya, spoke about the education movement of Dr. Ambedkar and Swami Ramanand Teerth and in the background of today's new education policy he explained the relevance of these movements ran by Rev. Swamiji and Rev. Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and discussed today's higher education and on future direction. The new education policy is expected to include vocational education or job-oriented education. It is also expected to provide education that connects society and colleges. It is true that our forefathers put forward the education movement at that time but we have not been able to achieve that goal, so through this policy we have again highlighted our goal. He gave important guidance that we should understand our role in this regard and move on now.

Valedictory Function-

In the last session, both the Resource Persons were felicitated on behalf of the college. Some feedbacks were taken. In this session Dr. B. P. Ruddewad, as the principal in charge of the college, handed over the charge to Dr. P. R. Tharkar as Dr. Tharkar appointed new Incharge Principal. The new Principal in charge Dr. P.R. Tharkar was welcomed by all. Prof. Dr. Sahebrao Gathal presided over the function while Shri Ganpat Vyas Secretary of Y.E.S. and Prof. Manikrao Lomte Treasurer, Y.E.S. were presented as Chief Guests. The program was moderated by Prof. Ramesh Sonwalkar and the vote of thanks was given by Dr. Ramesh Sontakke.
